TUESDAY EVENING, SEPT. 29, 1903. An Old Time Explosion.

An old chronicler tells a curious story of an explosion which occurred in London Jan. 4, 1649. A ship chandler, it seems, "about 7 of the clock at night, being busy in his shop about barrel-ing up of guspowder, it took fire and in the twinkling of an eye blew up not only that, but all the houses therebout to the number of fifty or sixty. The number of persons destroyed by this blow could never be known, for the next house but one was the Rose tavern, a house never (at that time of ight) but full of company. And in three or four days, after digging, they continually found heads, arms, legs, ite." The most interesting part of the ecount comes further on:

"In the digging they found the mistress of the house of the Rose tavern sitting in her bar and one of the draw-ers standing by the bar's side, with a pot in his hand, only stifled by dust and smoke, their bodies being preserved whole by means of great timbers falling across one upon another. There was also found upon the upper leads of Barking church a young child lying in a cradle as newly laid in bed, neither ild nor cradle having the least sign of fire or other hurt. It was never known whose child it was, so that one of the parish kept it for a memorial. for in the year 1666 I saw the child. grown to be then a proper maiden."

The Troubles of the Coyote. The coyote has small chance for life. It is hunted upon all occasions and by devious and sundry methods. As the cowboy careers along the plains he peps at it with his six shooter. The wise ranchman has a shotgun or rifle hanging in a convenient place await-ing the appearance of a coyote near the ranch house. The bunter of more choice game never misses a shot at a coyote, while there are professionals who do little else but pursue it from one year's end to another. Besides. here are organized bunts inaugurated in settled communities for both pleasure and profit, when a large scope of the country is swept clean and the coy-otes falling into the meshes of the hunt are dispatched and their skins tanned for rugs and doormats. Then animals are builted with poisoned meat. This method of destruction is not only used by ranchmen, but by persons who make a business of killing coyotes for a living.-Kansas City Journal.

The Apelsts In Society.

To spe anything is a sign of vaculty of mind; to spe the follies of thos-above you is one of the most offensive forms of vulgarity. Yet we see the for lies of the uppermost classes steadily imitated all down the different sets of society, and the popularity of every book dealing with the peerage is a proof, if one were needed, of what ab sorbing interest our fallings are to the public. There is nothing we will not write upon to gratify this vulgar curlosity: nothing is in too bad taste if by its publication we can raise a little of, the "needful." Our scandals, our intrigues, our innne conversation, our bills and even our menus are recorded for the benefit of a public which, while professing to be horrliled, greedily cries for more .- A Countess in London

The Proper Treatment for a Sprain ed Ankle. As a rule a man will feel well satisfied if he can hobble around on crutchetwo or three weeks after spraining his months before he has fully recovered. This is an unnecessary loss of time, for in many cases in which Chamberlain's Pain Italm has been promptly and freely applied, a complete cure has been effected in less than one week's time, and in some cases within three days.
